

THE SERRAS HOTEL RANKED BEST LUXURY HOTEL IN SPAIN FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR ON TRIPADVISOR TRAVELLERS' CHOICE AWARDS 2018

Barcelona's finest contemporary Luxury Hotel has been named Best Luxury Hotel in Spain once again.

Our beautiful, understated luxury boutique hotel, perfectly positioned overlooking the luxurious Port Vell with its panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea and in the heart of Barcelona's Gothic quarter, has just been named Best Luxury Hotel in Spain for the third consecutive year; this on the heels of celebrating its three-year anniversary.

The Serras has also received the award for World's Best City Hotel by the celebrated Boutique Hotel Awards which recently held its gala evening in London last November.

With only 28 rooms and suites, guests at The Serras will experience a truly unique 5-star bespoke luxury service. Our small number of rooms ensures that our service is tailored to the needs of the most discerning guest.

Our Informal Restaurant by Marc Gascons (who has earned himself a Michelin Star for his Els Tinars restaurant in Girona) has garnered some much deserved attention of its own, being recognized as one of CNN's top ten new restaurants in the world. His cuisine has been described as fresh, young and informal, but very much Catalan and Mediterranean in style.

The building's façade also has an interesting history as it was restored to preserve the original design of architect Francesc Daniel Molina, renowned for having designed the famous Plaça Reial in the 19th century, a famous square in the Gothic Quarter that lies next to La Rambla and constitutes a world famous touristic attraction.

Moreover, Pablo Picasso, one of the greatest and most influential artists of the 20th century, started his career with his first studio in this precise building back in 1896. It was here that he painted Science and Charity one of the major works of his early career, when he was still a student at Casa Llotja de Mar.
